

CCI Partners with WC Atkinson for a Day of Service, Pampering, and Connection

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Coatesville, PA – February 24, 2025- Coatesville Towers, a CCI property recently had the honor of partnering with WC Atkinson, a neighboring men’s shelter, for a special Act of Service Day. The event brought together a dedicated team of local professionals—including stylists, barbers, nail technicians, photographers, nurses, and VA representatives—to provide residents and staff with a memorable day of care and connection.

“This collaboration was truly extraordinary,” said Maya Lawson, Service Coordinator at Coatesville Towers. “The joy and appreciation on the faces of our residents were unforgettable. WC Atkinson and their volunteers created a space for genuine connection, reminding everyone of the strength in community care.”

Throughout the day, participants were pampered with haircuts, manicures, wellness checkups, and professional portraits. The atmosphere was filled with joy and camaraderie as neighbors came together to celebrate the importance of service and care.

CCI sincerely thanks WC Atkinson, the volunteers, and the talented professionals who dedicated their time and expertise to making the event a success. This day exemplifies the strength of community partnerships and the meaningful connections they create.
